Mindful Fork Catering

Mindful Fork Catering | River Falls, WI

Hi! I am Angie.

The chef & catering guru behind Mindful Fork Catering.

I have always had a passion for cooking and creating delicious dishes. From a young age, I was fascinated by how simple ingredients could be combined and transformed into something entirely new.

Food is a universal experience that connects us all. It's incredible how asking "What's for dinner?" can bring people together.

Your fresh, made-to-order meals are my passion.

As for me, I love providing fresh, made-to-order meals for each client. Planning lunch for groups should be stress-free and enjoyable, and as someone who loves to eat, I'm happy to take on the task. The best food is often simple and locally sourced. I started my career at a family-owned pizza restaurant in Baldwin, WI, serving our community and surrounding areas.

Eventually, my passion for farm-to-fork cuisine and local ingredients led me to become a private chef in 2009 and transition to catering.

Now I serve Western, WI, with my catering company, Mindful Fork.

At Mindful Fork, we specialize in providing stress-free event planning and catering services with a keen eye for detail. Our menu options include on-site catering packages, boxed lunches, a buffet, and ready-to-serve options. With years of experience as a chef, I have honed my skills through education, training, and hands-on experience in top-rated restaurants.

I take pride in creating meals that are not only delectable but also visually appealing, believing that food should be a feast for all senses. Therefore, I carefully source the freshest, highest-quality ingredients and incorporate innovative and classic techniques and flavors worldwide. As a chef, I always strive to learn and grow and am eager to explore new culinary horizons.

Thank you for taking the time to learn more about me and my work as a chef. I look forward to creating something special for you soon!

Oasis Del Norte - Food Truck - Great for weddings and events!

Oasis Del Norte

- Eduardo Sandoval Luna, Owner
- Duluth, MN
- For Catering and Information (218) 464-663

The Name Oasis Del Norte, or “Oasis of the North” is our way to bring a little piece of Mexico here to the Northland. I grew up working in my mother’s successful restaurant named “El Oasis” in Jerez, Zacatecas Mexico. It is still a favorite stop for locals today. Now, living up in the Duluth area, I just had to bring my mom’s recipes to the area. It reminds me of home, and my mom, but more importantly I can share my culture through my food. You can experience a part of Mexico when you eat my food. Our real tacos are “clean,” “simple” and “fresh.” The idea is to be able to taste each of the layers of flavor. Nearly everything is made from scratch and we can accommodate special diet requests from Gluten Free to Keto. We source local ingredients when possible. Our carnitas pork is marinated in local craft beer.

Sunset Pet Retreat - Boarding kennel and day care

Hi, we're Jo and Tim Ullom. We open our SUNSET PET RETREAT boarding kennel and day care for dogs and cats on July 15, 1997. The home away from home is located 2.5 miles west of Shell Lake on Sand Road and 1/2 mile north on Sunset Drive, or 2.5 miles west of Shell Lake on County Road B and 1/2 mile south on Sunset Drive.

As pet lovers ourselves, we know how hard it is to be separated from your beloved pet(s). Our goal is to provide exceptional care for your pet and make their stay with us enjoyable. Rest assured your pet will be comfortable, safe and out to play while you are away. We encourage you to see where your pets are housed. We also encourage pet owners to call us to see how they are doing during stay with us.

We are a small facility which all dogs and cats must have a reservation. Normally we suggest calling in advance to avoid a disappointment. However, if you will be boarding around a holiday or during the summer, we suggest booking well in advance to assure a reservation.

Riverstreet Family Restaurant

The Lodge @ Long Lake

N3377 Curtis Road, Stone Lake, WI 54876 US

651-383-8949 | team@classyrusticrentals.com

RiverStreet Family Restaurant in Hayward is a classic American diner that offers a wide range of breakfast, lunch, and dinner options. The establishment has a friendly and welcoming ambiance, with two separate dining rooms to choose from. The big dining room has a more inviting atmosphere than the small one, which can be quite loud. The interior design is typical of a family restaurant, with comfortable seating and clean restrooms. Prices are reasonable, making it an affordable place to dine out. The restaurant is located in the heart of Hayward, with ample parking available.

One of the special features of RiverStreet Family Restaurant is that they offer breakfast all day. Some of the popular dishes include the Game Day Skillet, which consists of hash browns covered in taco meat, cheese, 2 eggs on top, salsa and sour cream on the side, and a choice of toast or pancake. The Bahama Burger is another favorite, made with two 1/4-pound patties on a large sub-like bun. The patty melt on white bread is also quite tasty. For those who prefer lighter fare, the salad bar is a good option.

RiverStreet Family Restaurant does not have a bar, but they do offer a variety of soft drinks, coffee, and tea. The coffee carafe on the table is a nice touch. The menu also includes a selection of wines to pair with your meal.

Overall, RiverStreet Family Restaurant is a great place to enjoy a home-cooked meal with family and friends. The portions are generous, and the food is delicious. The service is friendly and efficient, and the prices are reasonable. If you're looking for a relaxed diner with the locals, check out RiverStreet Family Restaurant.

Pine Ridge

Pine Ridge started back in the late 1800's. The original building was built by O.H. Ingram, It was used as a fishing cabin . O.H. Ingram used a steam yacht called " Fannie Ingram" to bring parties to the head of Long Lake where it was moored. Horse drawn wagons were sent to bring the fishermen to Sissabagama Lake.

In 1919 the property was purchased by Oscar Kubnick. Oscar soon decided to take in paying guest. He Gathered several men together to raise the roof of the Lodge and add a second story of sleeping rooms. The building still stands on the shore of the lake to the front and right of the restaurant entrance.

Each year a few cabins were added until there were fourteen units in all plus the bar. In the late 70's owners Ken and Sandy Knutson built the Restaurant and upstairs living quarters onto the lodge building.

Round Man's curved, poured concrete seating area designed to create a very conversational environment. The exposed metal, wood, and concrete give the brewpub a warm , but tough industrial attitude. Blain painted the 70-foot backdrop mural for the brewhouse that is a rendering of men working, embracing the industrial history of the area. Stone Lake Area Historical Society

The museum complex in Stone Lake consists of the original Stone Lake S.O.O. Line depot, a 1913 S.O.O. Line caboose, and the original 1926 Stone Lake Town Hall. The exhibits showcase artifacts from Stone Lake's history, with additions like the 1926 Town Hall and Preservation Hall in 2010. The museum features a special exhibit of a restored 1913 Soo Line Railroad caboose, allowing visitors to experience the life of early railroad workers. The "Railroad Room" in the depot includes historical items like the station agent's desk, ticket desk, telegraph key, and railroad dining car dinnerware. The original depot freight room houses a pioneer home exhibit with antique items. Additionally, the original 1926 Stone Lake Town Hall, moved to the museum in 2010, displays exhibits on early local politics, the post office, old maps, and a unique collection of glass negatives from the Polar Expedition taken by Stone Lake resident Major Charles M. Winter.

The Namekagon River (pronounced NAM-uh-KAH-gun) is a tributary of the St. Croix River. It is approximately 95 mi (155 km) long and is located in northwestern Wisconsin in the United States. Its course is protected as part of the St. Croix National Scenic Riverway.

The Namekagon River varies from an intimate cold-water trout stream, closed in by a predominantly coniferous forest, to a slow-moving body of water which flows through marsh and swamp land. A narrow, twisting river, it is best navigated by canoe or kayak.

According to the Geographic Names Information System, the river's name has also been spelled Namakagon and Namekagan. Its name is derived from the Ojibwe language Namekaagong-ziibi, meaning "River at the place abundant with Sturgeons."

The Namekagon River issues from Namekagon Lake in southeastern Bayfield County and flows southwestwardly through Sawyer and Washburn Counties, past Hayward, and northwestwardly into Burnett County, where it joins the St. Croix, 45 mi (72 km) south of the city of Superior. Near its mouth it collects the Totagatic River.

The St. Croix and Namekagon Rivers offer 252 miles of clean water gliding past a lush green landscape, with glimpses of a human presence. Choose to canoe and camp amid the north woods, or boat and fish surrounded by wooded bluffs and historic towns. This river corridor provides a wealth of scenic views and a haven for wildlife.

The Namekagon Is well known in the area for its beauty. Many species of wildlife are abundant for viewing in their natural state. The Namekagon has been quoted as "a great alternative to the increasingly busy boundary waters".

Water Safety Rules

Wake Responsibly

WAKE RESPONSIBLY

- 1 Stay at least 200 feet away from the shoreline, docks, or other structures.
- 2 Keep music at reasonable levels.
Sound travels well over water. If it's loud enough to hear at 80 feet back, it is likely loud enough for homeowners to hear, too.
- 3 Minimize repetitive passes on any one portion of shoreline. Once you've run the same line for a while, move on to another area.

REMEMBER, YOU ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR YOUR OWN WAKE.
